MARKET COMMENT

In June the fund was up 0.22%, before fees. Shipping yielded a return of -0.18%, primarily due to long positions in tankers. Renewables posted a positive return of 0.35% derived from long positions in green enablers. Oil services saw a return of -0.16%, driven mainly by short positions in US oil services. Oil achieved a return of -0.21% driven mainly by short positions in energy infrastructure and E&P companies. Cash contributed 0.42%.

Spesialfondet KLP Alfa Global Energi

(Specialised fund with a limited group of investors)

SUMMARY

The Fund	The Fund is a Norwegian special fund established pursuant to the Act relating to Securities' Funds of 25 11 2011 no. 44.
Mandate	Long/short equity market neutral energy fund with a global investment mandate
Goal	Achieve the highest possible return with low correlation to the stock market.
Methodology	Investments are based on fundamental analysis in both sector and company level.

AREA OF INVESTMENTS

The special fund KLP Alfa Global Energi is an actively managed fund that invests globally, mainly in shares in the energy sector. The management takes place in compliance with KLP's ethical investment rules.

INVESTMENT STRATEGY

The fund's strategy is to generate returns based on fundamental quantitative and qualitative analysis, and is done through a combination of long and short positions. The portfolio is constructed so that the expected return will be made through the return difference between two stocks (long / short). The Fund will be exposed to company-specific risk, primarily in and relating to the energy sector and will seek to isolate this risk, and neutralize other risks. Long / short positions may be both intra-sector and sector vs sector (eg. Oil service vs. Shipping). The number of positions are expected to be 15 to 20 long and a corresponding number short. The Fund will have little exposure to general stock market movements.

MANAGER

David Bhatti (1984) has 16 years of experience as an equity analyst at SEB, CF Partners, Platou Markets, Nordea Markets and as portfolio manager at KLP Kapitalforvaltning.

Frederik Ness (1990) Has 7 years of experience as an equity analyst at SEB before he joined KLP Kapitalforvaltning in 2024 as a portfolio manager

RISK PROFILE

The fund's risk profile is medium compared to similar funds in the same asset class (market neutral funds). The Fund's most important risks are management risk and company specific risk. The Fund has in accordance with the Fund's Articles of Association the opportunity to buy or sell equities equivalent to 130% of the fund's net asset value, but with a net market exposure that does not exceed +/- 15%.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The purpose of risk management is to ensure that the fund operates within its investment strategy, and to limit unwanted effects on the fund's value development. The risk management is a continuous activity, which is carried out based on risk analyses of this fund and on similar investment mandates, as well as the history of the securities market. The risk analysis establishes the likelihood of an unwanted outcome, and the consequence of unwanted outcomes. The limits of the fund have been provided by law, regulations and circular letters from the Norwegian Financial Supervisory Authority, in addition to the fund's articles of association and this prospectus and internal limits.

LIMITS

The fund's exposure limits are specified in the Fund's Articles of Association. The Management Company has, within these prescribed limits, currently set the following maximum limits, in relation to the Fund's net asset value:

Estimated volatility, annual maximum	20%
Target volatility	10%
Gross exposure of financial assets	400%
Gross equity exposure	260%
Net equity exposure	+/- 15%
